BLUE GRASS LEAGUE NOTES.

Mr. John Arkle has secured the contract for building the board fence around the ball park and work will be commenced this morning and the fence will be completed in about ten days. The Bourbon Lumber Company furnishes the lumber to be used.

Theopolis Nix yesterday assumed charge as ground keeper of the Paris park and promises in every respect to rival the reputation attained by Matty Swab, who is ground keeper of the Cincinnati League Park.

The five members of the pitching staff of the Paris club, are due to report today to Manager Elgin for their trial on the Paris club. The infielders and utility men will arrive on April 11, which will bring all of the twenty players signed by Paris together.

The erection of the grand stand is progressing nicely and the contractors will have the structure completed this week if favorable weather conditions prevail.

April Court Day Report.

The court day crowd was unusually large, the horse exhibit attracting many horsemen and farmers from adjoining counties. One hundred mules were on the market and prices obtained were slightly lower than one month ago, though a strong demand prevailed from shipping sources. Three fourths of the offerings changed hands at prices ranging from $150 to $210, the bulk of the sales being around $175 per head. W. G. McClintock sold 11 mules at from $160 to $200.

The offerings of plug horses were very light compared to March court day with a stronger demand prevailing. Sales were made at from $35 to $90 per head. Good driving and saddle horses were in demand and sold at from $135 to $250. Retail trade was brisk and farmers came to town with large quantities of country produce, which met with ready sale at good prices.

For the first time in a decade farmers generally expressed the opinion that farm work of all kinds was far ahead of any previous season in that length of time and that everything now was dependant upon a change in the weather, warmer conditions accompanied by rain being needed to meet the requirements.

Installation of Officers.

The installation of the officers of the Elks Lodge elected on last Tuesday night will take place at the lodge rooms of the order in the Elks building tonight. District Deputy Thomas Smith, of Richmond, will be present and take part in the installation, after which a social session will be held. The new officers are as follows: Chas. S. Clarke, Exalted Ruler; Wm. Taylor, Leading Knight; R. K. McCarney, Lecturing Knight; Hugh L. Brent, Secretary; Clarence Thomas, Treasurer; Wm. Shire, Trustee.

Operations Begun.

The Paris Novelty Manufacturing Co., which recently located in this city began active operations yesterday morning. The company manufactures churning and other household novelties, upon which it has the patent rights, and began work with a force of skilled workmen, which will be increased as the business of the company grows, which is expected to be doubled in the next few months. Mr. Eastman, president of the company will arrive today from Cincinnati, and will make arrangements to take up his residence in the city.

Burglars Visit Bakery.

Burglars visited the bakery store of Henry Grosche at the corner of High and Eighth street Wednesday night and removed a penny gum machine attached to the outside wall, and on Thursday night finished the job by taking a penny peanut machine. Both machines were demolished in the alley in the rear of Lavin & Connell's grocery and relieved of both money and wares. Mr. Grosche's loss is $35.

Small Fire.

A fire alarm from box 27 called the fire department to the corner of Ninth and Main streets shortly before noon yesterday where a blaze in the portion of the property of Dr. Melane, occupied by Frank Dade, threatened the entire building. The locality was a dangerous looking one, the fire being immediately in front of the opera house, with a high wind blowing. The department as quick to respond and soon had the fire under control. The loss was small and covered by insurance.

Shot in the Face.

Grover Butler, son of W. O. Butler, of this city, was shot in the face and neck Sunday morning about 4 o'clock and was painfully but not seriously hurt. It seems that Butler was in one of the work cars of the Interurban about one mile from Lexington with a crew of men who had been doing some repairing on the road, when some person fired into the car from the rear with a shotgun and resulted as above. A man by the name of Matthews has been arrested, accused of firing the shot.

Schools Observe Arbor Day.

The pupils of the Paris City School observed Arbor Day Friday by appropriate exercises and by the planting of trees which were intended in the future to beautify the grounds occupied by the new city school building. The exercises, which were conducted in the auditorium of the school building consumed a period of one hour and a half and consisted of addresses and music by the City School Orchestra, which was followed by the planting of the trees by the pupils.

Each grade in the school planted a tree, which was given a name after that of some notable person, who has figured in some manner in the affairs of the State, nation or county or educational matters, which are as follows: High school, Wm. Garth; Eighth grade, John Hamilton; seventh grade, James Lane Allen; sixth grade, John Urey Lloyd; fifth grade, Opie Read; fourth grade, Horace Mann; third grade, Carey, after the Carey sisters; second grade, Joel T. Hart; and the first grade, John Fox, Jr.

A pupil of the school will in the near future draft a map of the school grounds; and each tree planted will be located in its exact position on the map with its name thereon, which will be made a part of the records of the school, so that in years to come it may be referred to and the names of the trees and the grades under whose auspices they were planted may never be forgotten.

The colored school also observed Arbor Day planting nine trees upon the school grounds, one for each grade of the school.
